

My Empty Heavy Heart

*My heart's empty and heavy,
Like you have just taken all the contents,
And this feeling of loss
Drags me down daily
Even though my anger is bubbling.*

*We were partners,
Investing interest in each other's lives,
Always supporting each other
But since our confusion
I'm a dead-weight.*

*Without you to text,
To share,
To joke,
To encourage
Things don't matter.*

*So I'm waiting for this feeling to pass,
Drawing from our past
I find comfort,
Hoping you'll come around,
To give us another chance.*
