

Faith

*I have lost faith in others,
Who preach the gospel in vain,
I can't see a god approving of this.*

*I have lost faith in politeness,
To those who upset me,
I can't see why I should endure it.*

*I have lost faith in acting appropriately,
To impress a judgemental god,
I can't see how He could care.*

*I haven't lost faith in people,
Near and far,
I still see kindness in their eyes.*

*I haven't lost faith in the spirit,
Of this beautiful humankind,
I still see it shine ever so brightly.*

*I haven't lost faith in peace,
Even when the world longs for it,
I still see it within you.*

I haven't lost faith in love,

And caring for each other,

I still see kind gestures everywhere.

I have lost faith,

But I will still have hope in all things good.
